

44. Chapter 44

MAYADEVI

44. 1 Sudhana, the head merchant's son, on the way to Mayadevi, undertaking the wisdom of practicing the scope of the activity of the Budas, thought, "By what means can I see the kalyanamitras, honor them, meet them, accompany them, learn their qualities, know the field of their speech, understand the succession of their words, and possess the teachings of the kalyanamitras who have six ayatanas that have risen above all worlds; who have bodies that have transcended all attachments; who follow the path of unimpeded movement; who have pure Dharma bodies; who have bodies that are manifestations of illusory physical activities; who perform conducts in the world that are the illusions of wisdom; who have forms and bodies from prayer; who have bodies that are not born and do not cease; who have bodies that are neither true nor false; who have bodies that do not pass away or perish; who have bodies that do not originate and are not destroyed; who have bodies that have the single characteristic of having no characteristics; who have bodies that have no attachment to duality; who have bodies that are based on having no basis; who have bodies that do not decay or diminish; [F.256.a] who have bodies without thoughts, like reflections; who have active bodies that are like dreams; who have bodies that do not depart, like the surface of a mirror; who have bodies that are established in peace, like the absence of directions; who have bodies that pervade all directions; who have bodies that have no differentiation between the three times; who have bodiless bodies of mind that are bodies without thought; who have bodies that have transcended the path of sight in all worlds; who have bodies that have been tamed through the path of completely good vision; and who have the unimpeded field of activity of space??1846

44. 2 While he was dedicated to contemplating and pondering this, Ratnanetra, the goddess of the city, appeared in the sky encircled by a crowd of sky goddesses. Her body was adorned by varieties of jewelry, her body was covered in adornments, and she scattered handfuls of divine flowers of many shapes and colors.

44. 3 She said to Sudhana, the head merchant's son, "Noble one, you should be dedicated to protecting the city of the mind by not dwelling in delight in samsara's field of perception. [F.256.b]

44. 4 "Noble one, you should be dedicated to adorning the city of the mind through focusing on the ten strengths of the Tathagatas.

"Noble one, you should be dedicated to purifying the city of the mind through being free of envy, greed, and deception.

44. 5 "Noble one, you should be dedicated to pacifying the torment of the city of the mind through realizing the nature of all phenomena.

"Noble one, you should be dedicated to increasing the city of the mind through increasing the power of great dedication to the accumulation of omniscience.

44. 6 "Noble one, you should be dedicated to protecting the city of the mind's treasury of buildings through gaining power over dwelling in the vast divine palaces of the samadhis, samapattis, dhyanas, liberations, and the Dharma.

?Noble one, you should be dedicated to illuminating the city of the mind through seeking the attainment of the perfection of wisdom of all the levels of the established circles of followers of all the Tathagatas. [F.257.a]

44. 7 ?Noble one, you should be dedicated to strengthening the city of the mind through entering the city of your own mind through the path of the method of the arising of all the Tathagatas.

?Noble one, you should be dedicated to creating the strong walls of the city of the mind through a pure mind that accomplishes the completely good conduct and prayers of the Bodhisattvas.

44. 8 ?Noble one, you should be dedicated to accomplishing the inapproachability and indestructibility of the city of the mind through crushing the army of the maras, the friends of wickedness, who are on the side of the maras and the kleshas.

?Noble one, you should be dedicated to illuminating the city of the mind through enlightening all beings with the illumination from the knowledge of the Tathagatas.

44. 9 ?Noble one, you should be dedicated to moistening the city of the mind through acquiring the rain from the clouds of the Dharma of all the Tathagatas.

?Noble one, you should be dedicated to strengthening the city of the mind through your mind's acquisition of the ocean of merit of all the Tathagatas.

44. 10 ?Noble one, you should be dedicated to increasing the city of the mind through great love pervading all beings.

?Noble one, you should be dedicated to purifying the city of the mind through establishing the vast parasol of the Dharma as the remedy for bad qualities.1851

44. 11 ?Noble one, you should be dedicated to making the city of the mind tremble through the mind trembling with vast, great compassion for the sake of all beings.1852

?Noble one, you should be dedicated to opening the gates to the city of the mind through providing all beings with outer and inner things.1853 1854

44. 12 ?Noble one, you should be dedicated to purifying the city of the mind through turning away from delighting in the sensory range of all of samsara.1855

?Noble one, you should be dedicated to strengthening the heart of the city of the mind through making the continuity of bad actions impossible.1856

44. 13 ?Noble one, you should be dedicated to making the city of the mind strong through never lapsing from the diligence that accomplishes the accumulation of omniscience.

?Noble one, you should be dedicated to illuminating the city of the mind through the illumination of remembering the field of all the Tathagatas of the three times.

44. 14 ?Noble one, you should be dedicated to being skilled in the ways of analyzing the city of the mind through being skilled in the wisdom that analyzes the Dharma gateways of the various sutras of the Dharma wheel of all the Tathagatas. [F.257.b]

?Noble one, you should be dedicated to the perception of the city of the mind through teaching the way of the path and gateways to omniscience that are directly perceivable by all beings.

44. 15 ?Noble one, you should be dedicated to being skilled in the ways of blessing the city of the mind through the pure accomplishment of the ocean of prayers of all the Tathagatas in the three times within your own prayer.

?Noble one, you should be dedicated to increasing the power of the accumulations of the city of the mind through increasing the great, vast accumulations of merit and wisdom in the entire realm of the Dharma.

44. 16 ?Noble one, you should be dedicated to being skilled in the method for emitting light from the city of the mind through knowing the minds, thoughts, faculties, aspirations, defilements, and purification of all beings.

?Noble one, you should be dedicated to being skilled in the way of gaining power over the city of the mind through gathering all the ways of the realm of the Dharma.

44. 17 ?Noble one, you should be dedicated to illuminating the city of the mind through remembering and illuminating all the Tathagatas.

?Noble one, you should be dedicated to knowing the nature of the city of the mind through realizing all the ways of the bodyless Dharma.

44. 18 ?Noble one, you should be dedicated to examining as an illusion the city of the mind through going to the city of the Dharma of omniscience.

?Noble one, in that way the Bodhisattva who is dedicated to the purification of the city of the mind will be able to attain the accomplishment of all roots of merit.

44. 19 ?Why is that? [F.258.a] Because Bodhisattvas who thus purify the city of the mind have before them no obscurations: there are no obscurations to seeing the Buddhas, no obscurations to hearing the Dharma, no obscurations to venerating and making offerings to the Tathagatas, no obscurations to engaging in gathering beings, and no obscurations to purifying Buddha realms.

44. 20 ?Noble one, Bodhisattvas who are dedicated to seeing kalyanamitras with a mind free of all obscurations and with a higher motivation will with little difficulty see a kalyanamitra.

?Noble one, the omniscience of Bodhisattvas depends on the kalyanamitras.?

44. 21 Then two of the family of goddesses of the body, who were named Dharma padma shri kushala and Hri shri manjari prabhava, encircled by an innumerable assembly of goddesses, emerged from the bodhimanda, uttering praises of Mayadevi. They arranged themselves in the sky before Sudhana, the head merchant's son, and emitted from their precious earrings a net of many light rays the colors of jewels; many pure perfumes and incenses the colors of shining lights; colors attractive to mind and thought; colors that increased the power of joy in the mind; colors that eased the pains of the body; colors that revealed pure bodies; and nets of light rays that were a field of perception that gave rise to an unimpeded prowess of the body and illuminated vast realms.¹⁸⁵⁷

44. 22 They revealed to Sudhana, the head merchant's son, all the bodies of all Tathagatas, which are present everywhere and facing everywhere. [F.258.b] Then they completely circled, to their right, the entire world, and then shone upon the crown of the head of Sudhana, the head merchant's son. They completely pervaded him, from the crown of his head to the pores of his body.

44. 23 As soon as the light rays from those goddesses touched Sudhana, the head merchant's son, in that instant he attained the eyesight called the dust-free illuminations, which was free from all blinding darkness. He attained the eyesight called free from the obscuration of sight, through which he perceived the nature of beings. He attained the eyesight called the lord of freedom from dust, through which he looked at the field of the nature of all phenomena. He attained the eyesight called lord of purity, through which he looked at the character of all realms. He attained the eyesight called shining light, through which he looked upon the Dharma bodies of all Tathagatas. He attained the eyesight called pure intelligence, through which he looked upon the countless categories of the created form bodies of the Tathagatas. He attained the eyesight called unimpeded light, through which he looked upon the categories of the origination and destruction of world realms throughout the vast extent of the ocean of realms. He attained the eyesight called complete light, through which he looked upon the aspect of the creation of the way of the sutras in the Dharma wheel of all the Tathagatas. He attained the eyesight called the complete field of perception, through which he looked upon the miracles of the Budas and their blessings that guide beings. He attained the eyesight called complete sight, through which he looked upon the births of Budas that occurred in all Buda realms. [F.259.a]1859

44. 24 Then the guardian at the door of the meeting hall of the Bodhisattvas, the leader of ten thousand rakshasas, whose name was Sunetra, with his wives, children, relatives, and entourage, threw flowers of many beautiful colors over Sudhana, the head merchant's son, and said to him, "Noble one, a Bodhisattva who has ten qualities will be near to all kalyanamitras. What are these ten? They are (1) a pure motivation without deception or guile, (2) a compassion that gathers all beings without discrimination, (3) the insight that realizes that the nature of all beings is that there are no beings, (4) a superior motivation for proceeding irreversibly toward omniscience, (5) the strength of the aspiration that is directed toward the field of the Tathagatas, (6) the vision of the purity of the stainlessness of the nature of all phenomena, (7) the great love without discrimination for the field of beings, (8) the light of wisdom, which dispels all obscurations, (9) the great cloud of the Dharma, which is a parasol that counters all the suffering of samsara, and (10) the eyes of wisdom that are focused on following the kalyanamitras and enter into all the streams within the realm of the Dharma.

?Noble one, the Bodhisattva who has these ten qualities will be near to all kalyanamitras.

44. 25 ?The Bodhisattva who sees the ten entryways to resting in samadhi will attain the direct perception of all kalyanamitras. What are those ten? They are (1) the entryway to resting in the samadhi of the field of analyzing all phenomena as being like dust-free space, [F.259.b] (2) the entryway to resting in the samadhi of the vision that directly perceives the ocean of all directions, (3) the entryway to resting in the samadhi of the nonexamination and nonanalysis of all perception, (4) the entryway to resting in the samadhi of the arising of the clouds of Tathagatas in all directions, (5) the entryway to resting in the samadhi of the essence of the accumulation of an ocean of omniscient wisdom and merit, (6) the entryway to resting in the samadhi of the development of all aspirations to be inseparably near to the occurrence of kalyanamitras, (7) the entryway to resting in the samadhi of all the qualities of the Tathagatas originating from the mouths of the kalyanamitras, (8) the entryway to resting in the samadhi of inseparability from all the Tathagatas, (9) the entryway to resting in the samadhi of being engaged in being near, always and equally, to all kalyanamitras, and (10) the entryway to resting in the samadhi of engaging without weariness in all the conduct of methods of the kalyanamitras.1862

44. 26 ?Noble one, the Bodhisattva who has those ten qualities will attain the direct perception of all kalyanamitras. The Bodhisattva who attains the liberation of the samadhi called the Dharma wheels of all the Tathagatas proclaimed from the mouth of the kalyanamitra will, by entering it, attain the undifferentiated equality of all Buddhas and the undifferentiated omnipresence of the kalyanamitras.?

That is what Sunetra, the lord of the rakshasas, said. [F.260.a]

44. 27 Then Sudhana, the head merchant's son, stared into the sky and said, ?Arya, you have regarded me with compassion and without error taught the kalyanamitras in order to benefit me. In addition, I pray that you teach me without error the entrance ways to methods concerning how to apply myself to seeing the kalyanamitras, in what direction I should go, in what places I should search, and upon what goal I should focus my thoughts.?1863

1864 1865

44. 28 Sunetra, the lord of the rakshasas, replied, ?Noble one, you should go to the kalyanamitras by going with a body that bows down in every direction, with thoughts that are fastened on remembering the kalyanamitras as their object, following the samadhi that goes everywhere, with strength of mind that is like a dream, and traveling with a body of the mind that is like a reflection.?

44. 29 Then Sudhana, the head merchant's son, practicing as he had been told by Sunetra, the lord of the rakshasas, saw rising from the ground before him a great lotus with a stem made entirely from diamond jewels, with sepals made from a variety of kings of jewels of the world's oceans, with a circle¹⁸⁶⁶ of petals formed from all kings of jewels, with a pericarp made of shining kings of jewels, with filaments the colors and aromas of all the precious kings of jewels, and covered by a net of countless jewels.¹⁸⁶⁷

44. 30 He saw on the pericarp of that great lotus made of the kings of jewels a kutagara called Dharma dhatu diksamavasarana garbha, which was well adorned and beautiful, with a base that was the shape of a shining vajra.

A full thousand pillars made from the kings of jewels beautifully adorned it.

[F.260.b] Every kind of jewel was displayed as every kind of adornment. Its floor was made of divine Jambu River gold. Countless nets of various strings of pearls were spread upon it. It was adorned by a beautifying blend of various kings of jewels. It had a complete array of the precious jewels of Jambudhvaja. It was encircled by countless precious balconies. On all sides, stairways made of kings of jewels were beautifully arranged.¹⁸⁶⁸

¹⁸⁶⁹

44. 31 He saw in the center of the kutagara a throne of wish-fulfilling jewels with a lotus on its center. It was composed of precious jewels, and its base had the representations of all the lords of the world. It had the colors of all gems of precious jewels. It had the shape of Indra's radiant banner. It was set upon the surface of a ground that was a circle of precious diamonds. It had an array of rows of various kings of jewels. It was encircled by many precious platforms. It was decorated by shining banners of kings of jewels. It was beautified by an array of various jewels. Upon it was placed a cushion that was superior to divine material. Its surface was covered with precious cloths of various infinite colors. Decorative canopies of all kinds of precious cloth adorned the sky. It was draped in nets of all jewels. In all directions there was the sound of the flapping of arrayed precious banners. Banners of cloth made of all jewels fluttered. It was adorned by an arrangement of banners of all precious aromatic jewels. Banners made of all flowers emitted a rain of showers of various flowers. [F.261.a] Banners of precious bells emitted melodious, beautiful sounds. All the entrances of the building were decorated with strings of various jewels. From various precious jewels in the form of spouts issued a rain of scented water in many different colors. From the mouths of elephant lords formed from shining kings of precious jewels came networks of lotuses. From the mouths of lions made of a variety of diamonds came clouds of incense in endless colors. From the mouths of statues of Brahma made from shining kings of jewels there resounded in a loving manner the sound of the voice of Brahma. From the mouths of beautiful statues made of various jewels resounded the beautiful sounds of praises of goodness. From strings of golden bells were emitted the pleasant sounds of the names of the Budas in the three times. From strings of bells made of excellent precious jewels came the beautiful sounds of the Dharma wheels of all the Budas. From a variety of diamond bells came the sounds of all Bodhisattva prayers. Various voices resounded from the images of all the Budas that arose from strings of moonstone kings of jewels. From strings of emerald kings of precious jewels came manifestations of images of the successive lives of all the Tathagatas in the three times. From strings of sunstone kings of jewels appeared light rays of the range of various Buda realms throughout the ten directions as far as the limits of the realm of space. From strings of avabhasadhvaja kings of jewels shone the illumination of the halos of light of all the Tathagatas. [F.261.b] From strings of Vairocana kings of jewels radiated light rays in the forms of emanated clouds of all the lords of worlds, who made offerings to and venerated the Tathagatas. From strings of wish-fulfilling kings of jewels there spread throughout the realm of phenomena in each instant the completely good miraculous manifestations of the Bodhisattvas. From strings of Vairocana kings of jewels resounded the sound of the voices of all the apsarases in the palaces of all the lords of devas emitting clouds of praises of all perceived Tathagatas, describing their inconceivable good qualities. The throne was encircled by an array of seats made of countless jewels.¹⁸⁷⁶

44. 32 He saw upon that throne Mayadevi. She had a form that transcended the three worlds. She had a form that resided in all worlds and was above all existences. She had a form that was perceived by all beings according to their aspirations but was unstained by any world. She had a form that originated from vast merit and could resemble that of all beings. She had a form that appeared to all beings but in a way that would accord with ripening and guiding all beings. She had a form that was directly perceived by all beings but was at all times no different from beings? perception of space. She had a form that had the power to be present as perceivable throughout the extent of all beings without going anywhere. She had a form that neither ceased nor came into existence within worlds. She had a form that did not originate in and was not born in any world. She had a form that was dedicated to having a quality the same as birthlessness but was also unceasing. [F.262.a] She had a form that engaged in all conducts within the world and was truly perceived. She had a form that was not real but was perceived by the world. She had a form that was not false and did not pass away. She had a form that transcended death and birth and was indestructible. She had a form that had the indestructible nature of the realm of the Dharma and had no characteristics. She had a form that mastered the languages of the three times and had a single characteristic. She had a form that came forth with the excellent characteristic of the absence of characteristics and was like a reflection. She had a form that was perceived by all beings in accordance with their motivations and aspirations and was like an illusion. She had a form that was created by the illusion of wisdom¹⁸⁷⁹ and was like a mirage. She had a form that was intent on being present in the perception of beings in each instant and was like a shadow. She had a form that followed beings in accordance with her past prayers and was like a dream. She had a form that was perceived separately by beings according to their dispositions and was active in the entire realm of phenomena. She had a form that had a pure nature like the realm of space and arose from great compassion. She had a form that was dedicated to protecting all the classes of beings and arose through the gateway of the absence of attachment. She had a form that pervaded in each instant the entire realm of phenomena and had no end or middle. She had a form that was dependent on all beings without being polluted by them and was immeasurable. She had a form that transcended all words and had no location. She had a form that was an accomplished presence that guided all beings and had no presence. She had a form that through its presence was dedicated to benefiting beings and did not occur. She had a form that was created through the conjured illusion of prayer and was unsurpassable. She had a form that was above all worlds and was not what it seemed to be. [F.262.b] She had a form that was perceived through the light of shamatha and was without origin. She had a form that followed beings in accordance with their karma and accomplished the prayers to fulfill the wishes of all beings like the king of wish-fulfilling jewels, without thought. She had a form that was present in accordance with the conceptions of all beings and, having no thought, was nonconceptual. She had a form that was perceived by all beings and was without impediment. She had a form that was dedicated to turning beings away from samsara and was completely pure. She had a form that, like the true nature, was without conceptualization and had that kind of mode. She had a form that appeared as form without having form and was without sensation. She had a form that was dedicated to the cessation of the sensations of worldly suffering and was above all the conceptualizations of beings. She had a form that was perceived by the perceptions of all beings and arose through the nature of not being formed. She had a form that occurred through the quality of illusory conjuration and transcended being an object of consciousness. She had a form that arose from the wisdom of Bodhisattva prayer and had no nature of its own. She had a form that engaged in the languages of all beings and dispelled pain.1886

44. 33 Through possessing the supreme coolness of the Dharma body, Mayadevi revealed a form body in accordance with the aspirations of beings. In accordance with the aspirations of beings, she manifested bodies that resembled those of all beings and were superior to the form bodies of all beings.

44. 34 Some beings saw Mayadevi in the form of a daughter of Mara but superior to the form of a daughter of Mara. [F.263.a]

44. 35 Some saw her as superior through having the form of one of Vashavartin's apsarases.

Some saw her as superior through having the form of one of Sunirmita's apsarases.

Some saw her as superior through having the form of one of Samtushita's apsarases.

44. 36 Some saw her as superior through having the form of one of Suyama's apsarases.

Some saw her as superior through having the form of a Trayastrimsha apsaras.

Some saw her as superior through having the form of a Caturmaharajika apsaras.

44. 37 Some saw her as superior through having the form of a daughter of a lord of kumbhandas.

Some saw her as superior through having the form of a daughter of a lord of mahoragas.

Some beings saw her as superior through having the form of a daughter of a lord of humans.

44. 38 Sudhana, the head merchant's son, although devoid of the concepts of the forms of all beings, was comprehending the thoughts of other beings, and he saw that in the thoughts of all beings Mayadevi had the merit to care for all beings; she had a body created by the merit of omniscience; she was inseparable from the practice of the perfection of generosity; she engaged equally with all beings; she gathered all beings into the enclosure of great compassion; she manifested from the practice of all the qualities of the Tathagatas; she had entered an ocean of all the ways of patience; she increased mentation through the power of the diligence of omniscience; she possessed the constant diligence that purified the entire field of phenomena; she had arisen from the realization of the nature of phenomena; she possessed a mind that had accomplished all the ways of the branches of dhyana; [F.263.b] she had attained the illumination of the field of dhyana of the Tathagatas that possesses the undifferentiated range of the branches of dhyana; she dwelled in various realizations of how to definitively dry up the ocean of the kleshas of all beings; she had skill in the way of differentiating the Dharma wheels of all Tathagatas; she had the wisdom to analyze the ocean of all the ways of the Dharma; she never had enough of seeing all the Tathagatas; she had the continuous vision of the successions of the Tathagatas in the three times; she faced the gateway to seeing all the Budas; she was skilled in the different ways of purifying the path¹⁸⁹¹ accomplished by all the Tathagatas; she had the field of activity of the

Tathagatas, which is as extensive as space; she was skilled in the ways of the method of gathering all beings; she had appearances that ripened and guided the vast extent of beings, without end or middle, in accordance with their aspirations; she comprehended the different pure bodies of all Budas; she had the prayer to purify the ocean of all realms; she had the pure prayer to reach the conclusion of having the presence with the power to guide all realms of beings; she had a mind that fills with offering the field of all Budas; she had arisen from dedication to all the miraculous manifestations of Bodhisattvas; she possessed the pure, unsurpassable Dharma body; she manifested endless form bodies; she defeated all the armies of Mara; [F.264.a] she possessed the strength of vast roots of merit; she had a mind that generated the strength of the Dharma; she had attained the illumination of the strengths of the Budas; she had perfected the strength of all the powers of a Bodhisattva; she had developed the strength of the power of omniscience; she had illuminated wisdom with the lightning of the wisdom of the Tathagatas; she was skilled in examining the ocean of the minds of the vast, centerless, endless extent of beings; she comprehended the aspirations of the multitudes of beings; she was skilled in the ways of knowing the different capabilities of other beings; she had realized the skill in knowing the various aspirations of infinite beings; she filled the measureless ocean of realms in the ten directions with her bodies; she was skilled in the aspects and ways of knowing all the different world realms; she had acquired skill in the ways of knowing all the modes of different realms; she spread the view of wisdom throughout the ocean of all directions; she had the understanding that pervades all the ocean of all time; she had bodies that bow down directly to the ocean of all Budas; she had a mind that directly acquired all the rain from the ocean of the clouds of the Dharma; she was dedicated to coming forth through the practice of completing the qualities of all the Tathagatas; she had the understanding that engaged in accomplishing all the accumulations of the Bodhisattvas; she possessed the power of analyzing the progress of all Bodhisattvas; she accomplished all the aspects of the aspiration to enlightenment; she was engaged in protecting all Bodhisattvas; she manifested the light of the clouds of the goodness of all Buddhas; [F.264.b] and she had arisen from the prayers that give birth to all Bodhisattvas and jinas.

44. 39 Sudhana, the head merchant's son, saw Mayadevi in those ways and in other ways as numerous as the atoms in Jambudvīpa.

44. 40 Having seen that, he blessed his own body to be as numerous as those of Mayadevi and bowed down to them with bodies that spread among them all.

44. 41 The instant he bowed down, he attained a vast extent, without middle or end, of entrances to samādhi. He looked upon those entrances to samādhi, identified their characteristics, meditated on them, devoted himself to them, remembered them, pervaded them, made them vast, viewed them, increased them, accomplished them, and sealed them.

44. 42 He arose from those entrances to samādhi and circumambulated Mayadevi and her entourage, keeping her to his right, and their residence and seats. Then he stood before her with hands together in homage and said, "Arya, through Mañjuśrī Kumārabhūta I have developed the aspiration for the highest, complete enlightenment and was inspired to honor the kalyāṇamitras. In that way, I have honored one kalyāṇamitra after another and have finally come to your feet.

44. 43 "Arya, how does a Bodhisattva train in Bodhisattva conduct and accomplish omniscience??

Mayadevi answered, "Noble one, I have attained the Bodhisattva liberation called the display of the illusory conjurations of wisdom of the great prayers.

44. 44 "Noble one, through possessing that liberation, I have become the mother of each one of all the Bodhisattvas in their final existences who are the Bhagavat Vairocana's miraculous manifestations of being born into the final existences of a Bodhisattva in all the Jambudvipas in all the world realms in this ocean of world realms. [F.265.a] All those Bodhisattvas have resided in my belly and emerged from the right side of my belly.

44. 45 "Noble one, in the location of the great city of Kapilavastu in this fortunate four-continent world, as a queen in the family of King Shuddhodana, I gave birth to the Bodhisattva Siddhartha in an inconceivable, vast, miraculous manifestation of a Bodhisattva's birth.

44. 46 "Noble one, while I was living in the palace of King Shuddhodana, the time came for the Bodhisattva to leave Tushita. From all his pores, from each of his pores, shone many light rays, as numerous as the atoms in countless Buddha realms, called the illumination that comes from the field of the qualities of the mothers of all Tathagatas, which were a display of the qualities of the mothers of all Bodhisattvas. They illuminated all world realms and shone upon me, spreading through me from the crown of my head to all the pores of my body.

44. 47 "Noble one, in that way, the Bodhisattva light rays with one name radiated various miraculous manifestations, displays, and liberations of the mothers of Bodhisattvas. The instant that they entered my body, I perceived in my body the displays and modes of the miraculous births of all 1892

Bodhisattvas, visible in the fields of the tips of the light rays from the Bodhisattva. Their residences and their entourages also appeared in that way. [F.265.b]1893

44. 48 ?Noble one, in that way, the instant those light rays from the Bodhisattva entered my body, the field of the tips of the light rays from the Bodhisattva made visible to me the miracles and modes of the lives of Bodhisattvas, and I saw them all. I saw them all going to their bodhimandas, sitting on their lion thrones encircled by assembled entourages of Bodhisattvas, encircled by lords of the world, and turning the wheel of the Dharma.

44. 49 ?I also saw those Tathagatas performing Bodhisattva conduct in the past, all their service to Tathagatas, their first development of aspiration to enlightenment, the miracles of their birth, their complete enlightenment, their turning the wheel of the Dharma, the miraculous manifestation of their passing into nirvana, and the display of their pure Buda realms.

44. 50 ?I also saw all the field of the emanations of those Tathagatas filling all the realms of phenomena in each instant.

44. 51 ?Noble one, in that way, the instant those light rays from the Bodhisattva entered my body, my own body became superior to those of all beings. My womb became as vast as space, but my body did not appear to transcend being a human body.

44. 52 ?All the displays and residences of the wombs in which dwelled Bodhisattvas in the ten directions appeared contained within my body.

44. 53 ?Noble one, in that way, there appeared in my body the wombs in which the Bodhisattvas resided, together with their residences and their enjoyments. [F.266.a] In that instant, the Bodhisattva and Bodhisattvas as numerous as the atoms in ten Buda realms who had the same prayer, the same practice of conduct, the same roots of merit, the same displays; who were dwelling in the same liberation, residing on the same level of wisdom, coming forth through the same miraculous manifestations, accomplishing the same prayers, coming forth through the same conduct; having purified Dharma bodies and the powerful presence of a vast, centerless, endless extent, of form bodies coming forth through the completely good Bodhisattva conduct, prayers, and miraculous manifestations, were seated in the center of the precious kutagaras of the lords of Nagas. The Naga king Sagara and eighty thousand other Naga kings and all lords of the world made offerings to them.

44. 54 ?They displayed the miraculous manifestations of passing away from all the Tushita palaces, displayed taking birth from each Tushita into a four-continent world throughout all the world realms, acted in accordance with their skill in the inconceivable methods for ripening beings, inspired beings who were careless, brought them up out of all attachments, spread a great network of light rays that dispelled the darkness in all worlds, ended the sufferings in all lower existences, prevented all existences in hells, invoked the past karma of all beings, [F.266.b] protected all realms of beings, and displayed their bodies to all beings.

44. 55 ?Together they departed from their Tushita palaces and with their entourages entered my body. All of them moved and walked within my body, their steps ranging from being as wide as a great world realm of a thousand million worlds up to being as wide as world realms as numerous as the atoms in countless Buda realms.

44. 56 ?The countless assembled entourages of Bodhisattvas at the feet of Tathagatas in all the vast extent of world realms in the ten directions in each instant came into my body in order to see the miraculous manifestation of the Bodhisattva's residence in the womb.

44. 57 ?The Four Maharajas, Shakra, Suyama, Samtushita, Sunirmita, Vashavartin, the lords of the devas, and the lords of Brahma devas also entered in order to see the Bodhisattva dwelling in a womb, to pay homage to him, honor him, and hear him speak the Dharma. My womb, although it held all those assembled entourages, did not become vast. My body was not different from an ordinary human body, and yet it held all those assembled entourages.

44. 58 ?All those devas and humans saw the Bodhisattva's various pure enjoyments and displays. Why is that? Because I meditated on this Bodhisattva liberation called the illusory conjurations of the wisdom of great prayer.

44. 59 ?Noble one, just as I held in my body the Bodhisattva in the Jambudvīpa of this fortunate four-continent world, [F.267.a] in the same way I have held him in this miraculous manner in all the four-continent worlds of the great world realm of a thousand million worlds. Because I have meditated on this Bodhisattva liberation called the illusory conjurations of the wisdom of great prayer, my body is neither dual nor nondual, and it is neither single nor multiple.

44. 60 ?Noble one, just as I have been the mother of this Buda Vairocana, in the same way I have been the mother of a vast extent, without middle or end, of past Tathagatas. If a Bodhisattva was born miraculously from the center of a lotus, I was a goddess of that lotus bed, I acquired that Bodhisattva, and I was known in the world as being the Bodhisattva's mother. If a Bodhisattva was born upon my lap, I acquired them from my lap and was the Bodhisattva's mother. If a Bodhisattva were in that way born spontaneously in a Buda realm, I would be living there as the goddess of the bodhimanda.

44. 61 ?Noble one, through various methods I became the mother of the Bodhisattvas when they appeared in various ways in the world as their last existence as Bodhisattvas.

44. 62 ?Noble one, in this world realm I have been the mother who manifested the miraculous Bodhisattva birth of the Bhagavat Vairocana. In the same way, I was the mother of the Tathagatas Krakucchanda, Kanaka muni, and Kashyapa. In the same way, I will be the mother of all the future Tathagatas in this Bhadra kalpa. [F.267.b] Thus, when the time comes for the Bodhisattva Maitreya, who dwells in the Tushita palace, to manifest passing away, he will radiate the light ray of the lights that reveal the miraculous event of the birth, appearance, and dwelling in a womb of all Bodhisattvas. The light will go throughout the lands and ways of the entire realm of phenomena and will manifest as that Bodhisattva Maitreya who will be born in a human world in the family of a lord of humans in all the lands and ways of the entire realm of phenomena in order to guide beings, and I will be the mother of all those Bodhisattvas.

44. 63 ?Just as I will be the mother of the Bodhisattva Maitreya, in the same way, after Maitreya's attainment of the highest, complete enlightenment of buddhahood, I will be the mother of Simha, Pradyota, Ketu, Sunetra, Kusuma, Kusumashri, Tishya, Pushya, Sumanas, Vajra, Viraja, Candrolka dharin, Yashas, Vajrashuddha, Ekartha darshin, Sitanga, Paramgata, Ratnarcih parvata, Maholkadharin, Padmottara, Vighushtashabda, Aparimita guna Dharma, Dipashri, Vibhushitanga, Suprayana, Maitrashri, Nirmita, Aniketa, Jvalitatejas, Anantaghosha, Aninetra, Aninema, Vimativikirana, Parishuddha, Suvishalabha, Yashah shuddhodita, Meghashri, Vicitra bhuta, Druma raja, [F.268.a] Sarva ratna vicitra varna mani kundala, Sagara mati, Shubharatna,

44. 64 ?Noble one, in that way I will be the mother of all the future Tathagatas, such as Maitreya and the others I have mentioned, and all the other Tathagata arhat samyak sambuddhas of this Bhadra kalpa in this great world realm of a thousand million worlds.

44. 65 ?As it is in this world realm, I will in the same way enter countless world realms in the ten directions throughout the vast extent, without middle or center, of the ways of the realm of phenomena.

44. 66 ?In the same way that I will be the mother, with countless special qualities, of the Tathagata Maitreya, [F.269.b] I will be the mother, with countless numbers of countless special qualities, of the Tathagata Simha, and so on until the Tathagata Roca.

44. 67 ?Just as I am the mother of the Tathagatas of the Bhadra kalpa, in the same way, in all the Jambudvipas in all the world realms in the entirety of this ocean of world realms called Kusuma tala garbha vyuhalamkara, and in all the world realms throughout the vast extent of world realms, until the last of future kalpas, I will practice the completely good conduct of the Bodhisattva and be present in all kalpas in order to ripen and guide beings, and I will be the mother of all the Tathagatas as Bodhisattvas in the future.?

44. 68 After she had spoken, Sudhana, the head merchant's son, asked Mayadevi, ?Arya, how long has it been since you attained this Bodhisattva liberation called the illusory conjurations of the wisdom of great prayer??

44. 69 Mayadevi answered, ?Noble one, in the past, in time gone by, countless kalpas ago, beyond the scope of the mind, beyond kalpas that are beyond the number that can be perceived and known by the vision of wise Bodhisattvas, there was a kalpa called Shubhaprabha. In that Shubhaprabha kalpa there was a world realm called Merudgatashri, which was both pure and defiled, formed from many jewels, and endowed with Cakravala mountain ranges, Sumeru mountains, and oceans, the five classes of beings, and a variety of beauties. In that Merudgatashri world realm there were ten thousand million four-continent worlds. [F.270.a] In the center of those ten thousand million four-continent worlds was the central four-continent world called Simha dhvajagra tejas. In that four-continent world there were eighty thousand million royal cities. In the center of those eighty thousand million royal cities there was the central royal city, called Dhvajagravati, in which there was a cakravartin king called Maha tejah parakrama. By that royal city of Dhvajagravati there was a bodhimanda called Citra manjari prabhasa, where dwelled a bodhimanda goddess by the name of Netrashri.

44. 70 ?In that bodhimanda called Citra manjari prabhasa, the Bodhisattva Vimala-dhvaja sat in order to realize omniscience. In order to prevent his realization of omniscience, a mara by the name of Suvarnaprabha, together with an entourage of a great army of maras, made himself visible and came before him.1907

44. 71 ?The cakravartin Maha tejah parakrama had attained the power of a Bodhisattva and displayed manifestations of great miraculous powers. He manifested a great army that was far more numerous than the mara's army, and in order to defeat the mara's army, it surrounded the bodhimanda and scattered the great army of the mara. Then the Bhagavat, the Tathagata Vimala dhvaja, attained the highest, complete enlightenment of buddhahood.

44. 72 ?Netrashri, the bodhimanda goddess, looked upon the cakravartin king Maha tejah parakrama as her son. [F.270.b] She bowed to the feet of the Bhagavat and made this prayer: ?Bhagavat, wherever I am reborn, may the cakravartin Maha tejah parakrama always be my son! May I be his mother when he attains the highest, complete enlightenment at buddhahood.?

44. 73 ?She dwelled at the Citra manjari prabhasa bodhimanda serving a trillion Tathagatas during the Shubhaprabha kalpa.

44. 74 ?What do you think, noble one? At that time, in that time, who was Netrashri, the bodhimanda goddess? Noble one, do not think that it was anyone else, for at that time, in that time, I was Netrashri, the bodhimanda goddess.

44. 75 ?What do you think, noble one? At that time, in that time, who was the cakravartin king Maha tejah parakrama, who had attained the power of a Bodhisattva, displayed manifestations of great miraculous powers, and scattered the army of that mara? Do not think that it was anyone else, for at that time, in that time, the Tathagata Arhat Samyak sambuddha Vairocana was Maha tejah parakrama, the cakravartin king.

44. 76 ?Noble one, in that way, from that time onward, wherever I was reborn, in all those lives he has been my son. Wherever he was reborn, practicing Bodhisattva conduct in all Budda realms, in all the entrances to roots of merit, in all the ways of Bodhisattva conduct, [F.271.a] in all the ways of rebirth, in all lifetimes as a lord of devas, as a lord of the world, on the level of a supreme deity, as a light among the classes of beings, wherever he was reborn in order to ripen beings, in all those lifetimes I was his mother. In all existences I have inseparably been his mother. I have been his mother in all the miraculous Bodhisattva births manifested in each instant through the gateways of Bodhisattva births.

44. 77 ?I have been the mother of the immeasurable vast extent, without middle or end, of the Tathagatas of the past. I am the mother of the immeasurable vast extent, without middle or end, of the Tathagatas in the ten directions who have appeared in the present time. In that way, I have been the mother of a Bodhisattva for all Tathagatas in their final lifetime, and from the navel of all those Tathagatas shone many light rays that illuminated my body and mind.

44. 78 ?Noble one, I know only this Bodhisattva liberation called the illusory conjurations of the wisdom of great prayer. How could I know or describe the qualities of the Bodhisattvas who possess the essence of great compassion, who within themselves are never satisfied in ripening and guiding beings to omniscience, and who manifest from the tips of their body hairs the miraculous manifestations of all Tathagatas?

44. 79 ?Depart, noble one. In the paradise of the lord of Trayastrimsha resides Surendrabha, the daughter of the deva Smritimat. [F.271.b] Go to her and ask her, ?How should a Bodhisattva train in and practice Bodhisattva conduct?? ?

44. 80 Sudhana, the head merchant?s son, bowed his head to the feet of Mayadevi, circumambulated her many hundreds of thousands of times, keeping her to his right, and, looking back again and again, departed from Mayadevi. [B17]
